Music with Le Salon Idéal

Created in January 2015, the company Le Salon Idéal is a musical salon dreamt and orchestrated by radioproducer and musicologist Arièle Butaux, where professional musicians from all styles (classical, jazz, folk, popular songs) and all cultures (Italian and French baroque to 20th century classical instrumentalists and singers, etc.) meet, create and freely experiment unprecedented musical collaborations of very high level in a welcoming, intimate atmosphere, embarking their audience in a privileged communion with their talent and creation.

These top level musicians create unique, non elitist but not complacent programmes offered to the widest audience, even with no previous exposure to musical performance.

Le Salon Idéal is regularly invited in prestigious venues such as the Palazzo Grassi in Venice, Tunis, Dakar or the Abbaye de Noirlac in France to create unique programmes tuned to each particular venue and audience.
